Please note:

- Schools may assemble students earlier than these start times to complete identifying information on answer sheets. Your AP Coordinator is responsible for letting you know exactly when and where to report for your exams.
- Schools in Alaska must begin the morning exam administration between 7 and 8 a.m. local time, and the afternoon exam administration between 11 a.m. and noon local time. The AP Physics C: Electricity and Magnetism Exam in Alaska must begin between 1 and 2 p.m. local time.
- Early testing and testing at times other than those published by the College Board are not permitted under any circumstances.
- If you wish to take exams that are scheduled for the same time, ask your AP Coordinator for information about taking one of the exams during the late-testing period. You may not take both Calculus AB and Calculus BC within the same year.

Getting Ready for Exam Day

Things You Need to Know

In order to have a successful testing experience, you should be aware of what is expected of you and what the conditions will be in the testing room. Carefully review the test security and test administration policies and procedures and the information that follows, and encourage your AP teachers to offer a timed practice exam that is as similar to the actual testing administration as possible. If you have any questions about how exam day will work, talk to your AP Coordinator.

Exams That Require Special Preparation

It is important to note that AP Chinese Language and Culture, Japanese Language and Culture, and Studio Art Exams have special requirements, such as the use of a computer. Visit www.collegeboard.org/apstudents for more detailed information.

To learn more about submitting AP Studio Art portfolios and using the Digital Submission Web application, talk to your teacher or visit: www.collegeboard.org/student/studioartdigital.

✓ What to Bring to the Exam Room

- Several sharpened No. 2 pencils with erasers, for all responses on your multiple-choice answer sheet.
- Pens with black or dark blue ink for completing areas on the exam booklet covers and for free-response questions in most exams.
- Your six-digit school code. Home-schooled students will be provided with their state's or country's home-school code at the time of the exam.
- A watch that does not beep or have an alarm (in case the exam room does not have a clock that can be easily seen).
- Up to two approved calculators with the necessary capabilities if you are taking the AP Biology, Calculus, Chemistry, Physics or Statistics Exams. Visit apstudent.collegeboard.org/apcourse to find the calculator policy for your subject. For a list of approved graphing calculators, visit www.collegeboard.org/ap/calculators.
- A ruler or straightedge only if you're taking an AP Physics Exam. Protractors are not allowed.
- Your AP Student Pack. If you do not attend the school where you are taking the exam, you should also bring a government-issued or school-issued photo ID.*
- Your Social Security number for identification purposes (optional). If you provide your number, it may appear on your AP score report.
- If applicable, your SSD Student Accommodation Letter, which verifies that you have been approved for a testing accommodation such as Braille or large-type exams.

*Additional ID may be requested by authorized test centers outside the U.S.

Some colleges and universities use Social Security numbers as student identifiers when assigning AP credit or advanced placement for qualifying AP scores. While the College Board does not require you to provide your Social Security number, you may want to check with the college or university where you are sending scores to see if they prefer that you provide a Social Security number on your AP Exam answer sheet.

X What NOT to Bring to the Exam Room

- Electronic equipment (cell phone, smartphone, laptop, tablet computer, etc.), portable listening or recording devices (MP3 player, iPod, etc.), cameras or other photographic equipment, devices that can access the Internet, and any other electronic or communication devices.
- Books, compasses, protractors, mechanical pencils, correction fluid, dictionaries, highlighters,[†] notes or colored pencils.[†]
- Scratch paper; notes can be made on portions of the exam booklets or, for Chinese Language and Culture and Japanese Language and Culture, on scratch paper provided by the proctor.
- Watches that beep or have an alarm, or smartwatches.
- Computers.[†]
- Reference guides, keyboard maps or other typing instructions.
- Clothing with subject-related information.
- Food or drink.[†]

[†]Unless this has been preapproved as an accommodation by the College Board Services for Students with Disabilities office prior to the exam date.
